

Strand I- Applying to professional coursework

Welcome!

If you are receiving this survey, you are possibly eligible to apply for admission into the professional coursework sequence of your educator preparation program. This survey should take you approximately 5 minutes to complete if you have the following information available: field experience placements you've had (location and grade level(s)).

Based upon the information you provide here, you will receive notification of whether or not you have been accepted to interview for admission (the next step). If asked to interview, you will be asked to submit a resume.

Good luck!

Your answer

We would like to learn a bit more about any field experiences you have had. A field experience is defined here as time you have spent in a P-12 classroom connected with your university coursework. Please list below the school and grade level of any field experiences you have had. *

Your answer

The teacher understands the importance of ongoing personal reflection regarding teaching and lesson planning methods, personal and teaching goals, as well as continued striving for development. Teachers perform frequent self-evaluation, and encourage feedback from students, students' families, and colleagues or supervisors. Teachers must see themselves as continual learners, always seeking new opportunities to further their knowledge, particularly of their content base-InTASC, Standard 9. *

If you have read and understood the Code of Ethics of PNW's EPP, please type your full name in the box below.

Your answer

I verify that the information in this Application is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that in order to be eligible for admission into the professional coursework sequence of my educator preparation program, I must meet the School of Education's minimum standards relating to minimum competency (demonstrated by CASA/ACT/SAT scores), C or better in all coursework, and GPA requirements.

I accept this application.
