Comments	6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mr. Kuhn is probably one of the best teachers I had in a long time while attending Purdue. He takes the time to communicate with his class. He will even call back on his off hours to answer questions. I highly recommend him as a teacher. The professor did an overall excellent job for the online class, but the difficulty level and homework requirements were overwhelming. I spent more time on this class than I have for any other over the years. I am more of an in class type of student than online, and that might be somewhat of a reason for being overwhelmed. He is very helpful, and shows a great deal of concern for the student's success. Purdue did a great job selecting this teacher. Professor Kuhn is top-notch! He is very organized, caring for his students and willing to do whatever it takes to get you understanding course content. I really appreciate all that he does for his students and would not be against taking another course from him! Great professor! While I understand the importance of interaction with the professor, I feel that most of the kind of interaction I received was excessive and at unnecessary times. For instance, I was often called at 5:30 a.m., 6:30 a.m., and 7:30 a.m., all before the time in which on-campus courses began. I have small children all under the age of 6, and these phone calls startled the children and interrupted their sleep. I think much of the interaction could have been done via e-mail correspondence rather than the extremely early phone calls. While Skype is a great tool for communication, I didn't feel it should be a requirement for this course. I found it very difficult to use Skype with the professor due to the noise interference; if you do not have headphones, which I did not. However, I did appreciate the opportunity to also attend classes if I was not understanding something. The professor does go above and beyond to help students who are having trouble, especially where the book fails and does not explain something in depth, and I appreciate the extra efforts. I think the quiz grading is too rough. I miss one question on them and it knocks my grade down too easily. Other professors I have allow online quizzes to be retone.

Comments	2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> I believe it should be more readily reviewed for the problems in MathXXI, as the answers they have do not always follow good practice for Math. Would be best to at least get most of the credit for doing the problem the right way. Loved this class! Instructor made learning very easy, and his material was awesome!
